

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

ALPHEN, Eusebius Johann

Vienna 1741–1772

Variously spelt Alf, Alfen, Alwen. Pastellist and miniaturist, working with Jean-Baptiste Massé (q.v.) in Paris in 1764 where he was spotted by Høyer (q.v.). Subsequently he was court painter in Vienna. A number of miniatures are in the Österreichische Nationalbibliothek in Vienna. He appears in Mozart's letters and may be responsible for the miniature of the composer and his sister.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008; Nagler 1835–52

Pastels

JOSEPH WENZEL I. Lorenz Fürst von und zu Liechtenstein (1696–1772), en uniforme de maréchal, pstl, 1769 (Vienna, Belvedere). Lit.: Schidlof 1961, p. 42