APPEL, Frau, née Wilhelmine Caroline Amalie Tischbein

Kassel 1753–1820/39

The daughter of J. H. Tischbein, she sat for her father and became herself a miniaturist, printmaker and draughtsman. In 1780 she was made an honorary member of the Kassel Akademie. Freiherr von Gündorode praises a "gut gemaltes und besonders sehr ähnliches Porträt der Frau Landgräfin" in pastel, executed before 1780. A number of miniatures and chalk drawings are known. She married a banker, Alexander Fiorino Appel (or Apell).
