BEAUCOURT, François Malépart de

La Prairie 1740 – Montréal 1794

Born in Canada, Beaucourt went to France and studied drawing and painting in Bordeaux where he was reçu by the Académie in 1784. He was back in Montréal in 1792 after some years of travel. He seems to have worked in oil and pastel, but the Québec pastel of Mesplet is not now thought to be by him.
