BRION DE LA TOUR, Louis

Paris 1756–1823

Son of Louis Brion, géographe; pupil of Restout. Engraver of maps and Revolutionary pieces, he was also an occasional portraitist in oil. A pastel of Lekain, inscribed La Tour and derived from an earlier engraving, was previously thought to be the basis of a Janinet print, and accordingly given to Brion; we think it more likely to be by Lenoir (q.v.).
