

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

BYRON, Frederick George

1764 – Bristol 1792

Cousin of Lord Byron; an amateur artist in gouache or pastel. In 1791 he exhibited some topographical drawings of Calais and Paris at the Society of Artists. The following year he repaired to Bristol Hotwells for the recovery of his health, unsuccessfully.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Graves 1907; Saur; Waterhouse 1981