CONOLLY, Lady Anne, née Wentworth

London 5.III.1713 – 17.II.1797

Amateur pastellist. The eldest daughter of the 1st Earl of Strafford, and god-daughter of Queen Anne, she married William Conolly of Castletown in 1733. After his death in 1753 she returned to London, sitting for Liotard in 1754. Her very lengthy will, with five codicils, mentions a number of portraits disposed to various family members but without attribution or specified medium.
