

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

COOKE

f. Bath a.1801

Drawing master, pastellist and miniaturist. Farington records a description of Cooke's method for fixing chalk drawings in 1801, from which it appears that Cooke made pastels and resided in Bath for several years before moving to London by 1801.

Bibliography

The diary of Joseph Farington, 1778–84, IV, p. 1495;
British artists' suppliers at npg.org.uk