DIETZER, August Wilhelm

Kandern 22.V.1763 – Rotterdam 20.I.1836
Born in Baden-Württemberg (Kandern, near the border with Switzerland) to Johann Adame Diettzer and Anna Eva Beiter; portrait painter and miniaturist, active mainly in Rotterdam and Amsterdam. He is recorded in Den Bosch in 1787 and in Utrecht in 1804 (one portrait is marked “A. Dietzer, portraiteur, Goorstraat 4, Utrecht, 1804”). He appears to have been in the USA around 1806: several pastels of sea captains are in the New England museums, but he was back in Europe by 23.XI.1806, when he married a Leonora Casteleijns in Rotterdam, signing as August Wilhelm Dietzer, widower from Candern in Switzerland. (His first wife was a Theresia Smidt.) He was in Amsterdam c.1810 when he made portraits of members of the Boissevan family from his address at 507 Singel, next to the Arnhem post office. Later sightings include Rotterdam (1826), Leipzig (1827) and London (1832–34). Although Bénézit mentions only one known portrait, some 53 pastels are listed in the rKD files; the majority seem to be nineteenth century, and are omitted here. The earlier works are profiles in the manner of Anspach (q.v.), but with a little more life.
