

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

DIGHTON, Robert

London 1751–1814

Artist, actor, singer and author; he exhibited at the Society of Artists from 1769 and the Royal Academy from 1775. He is chiefly known for his numerous coloured prints (mainly caricatures and satires) which he sold from Spring Gardens, but he also produced large numbers of watercolours. Sée does not cite any specific work in pastel.

Bibliography

Edinburgh 2008; Grove; New Haven 1979; Saur; Sée 1911