DÖPLER, Gottlieb

f.l. Berlin 1786–91

The Herr Dopler, Bildnismahler, who exhibited a pastel head in 1786, and the Herr Döbler, Portrait-Mahler, who exhibited the following two years, are presumably the same artist, identified by Börsch-Supan as Gottfried Doepler and no doubt the same as the history painter Gottlieb Doepler in Bénézit (also Doeppler, the Witt preferred spelling). His 1791 portrait of Kant is widely reproduced.
