

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

FANCELLI, Pietro

Bologna 1764 – Pesaro 1850

Art restorer and painter, draughtsman and theatrical designer. Taught by his father in Venice, he returned to Bologna to enroll in the Accademia Clementina (which was to become the Accademia nazionale di belle arti in 1804). The pastel in the Accademia's collection is of the landscape painter with whom Fancelli often collaborated.

Bibliography

AKL; Colnaghi, master drawings exh. cat., 1995, no. 45

Pastels

Vincenzo MARTINELLI [(1737–1807), pittore],
pstl (Bologna, Accademia di belle arti)