

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

FRIEDRICH, Caroline Friederike

Dresden 1749–1815

Daughter and pupil of the painter David Friedrich; she became a well-known still-life and flower painter in oil and gouache, and a member of the Dresden Akademie. Only one pastel is recorded, from the early nineteenth century. Her friend Schenau (q.v.) portrayed her in pastel.

Bibliography

AKL; Bénézit; Füssli 1806

Pastels

Eine junge spielende Katze, als Studium in Pastell, Dresden, 1806