GREUZE, Anne-Geneviève

Paris 16.IV.1762–6.XI.1842

Daughter and pupil of Jean-Baptiste Greuze (q.n.), with whom she lived until his death. She is known to have painted genre pictures and portraits, no doubt many confused with the work of her father. The attribution of these pastels to her rests on a family tradition and the close friendship of Mlle Greuze with Greuze's goddaughter and biographer Caroline Trochon de Laudigeois (1787–1875) who married the sculptor, Henri-Zozime, marquis de Valori and in whose family the pastels remained until 2009.
