GROS, Mme Jean-Antoine, née Pierrette-Madeleine-Cécile Durant
Paris 1745–1831
Pastellist and miniaturist; daughter of a marchand orfèvre, Antoine-Sébastien Durand or Durant (1712–1787), she married Jean-Antoine Gros (q.v.) in Paris 2.IV.1770. Their children were Antoine-Jean, baron Gros and a daughter, Jeanne-Cécile (1774–1848). Several pastels by a Mlle Durand (q.v.) appeared between 1763 and 1777, when Mme Gros would presumably have signed differently. No other work has survived.
