

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

HEUZINGER, Johann

Wolfenbüttel 1769 – Braunschweig 1846

The pastel given to Johann Heuzinger is presumably by the Johann Heusinger who worked as a miniaturist, draughtsman, porcelain painter and drawings teacher in Braunschweig, Wolfenbüttel, Berlin (where he was a member of the Künstler-Verein), Königsberg, Stargard Szczeciński and Szczecin, and specialised in portraits of members of the Hohenzollern family. An anonymous manuscript biography from 1819 has recently been published.

Bibliography

Lacher 2005, pp. 41ff

Pastels

FRIEDRICH WILHELM III. König von Preußen
(1770–1840), pstl, 35x29 ov., c.1800 (Gotha, Schloß Friedenstein, inv. SG 212)