

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

HAZLITT, John

Marshfield 1767 – Stockport 1837

Brother of the essayist, he was a portraitist in oil and miniature. The family was based in America between 1783 and 1787. In 1785 John set up an art school with Joseph Dunkerley in Boston. After his return to London he exhibited numerous portraits and miniatures at the Royal Academy between 1788 and 1819, from various addresses in Soho.

Bibliography

Bolton 1923; Ernest J. Moyne, "John Hazlitt, miniaturist and portrait painter in America, 1783–87", Winterthur portfolio, vi, 1970, pp. 33–40

Pastels

Rev. Ebenezer GAY (1696–1787), pstl/ppr, 51x40.6, Hingham, Mass., 1785 (PC 1970).
Lit.: Moyne 1970, repr. φ

