

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

KARPPFF dit Casimir, Jean-Jacques

Colmar 12.II.1770 – Versailles 24.III.1829

Also Karpf, Carp etc. He studied in Colmar before enrolling in the Paris Académie school c.1790; here he was a pupil of David. In 1795 he returned to Colmar as drawings teacher at the École centrale. He was back in Paris in 1805 and became known as a history and portrait painter, miniaturist (he was particularly known for his miniatures en grisaille), draughtsman and lithographer.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008

Monographic exhibition

Jean-Jacques Karppff. Das Erhabene im Blick, Colmar, Musée Unterlinden, 18.III.–19.VI.2017. Cat. Viktoria von der Brüggen & Raphaël Mariani

Pastels

J.4254.101 AUTOPORTRAIT, cr. clr/ppr, 31x23, inscr. ✓, 1794 (Galerie de Bayser, Salon de dessin, 2011; Katrin Bellinger Collection, inv. no. 2011-005). Exh.: Karpff 2017. Lit.: Lettre de la miniature, no. 6, p. 11 repr.φσ

