

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

KARFFF dit Casimir, Jean-Jacques

Colmar 1770 – Versailles 1829

Also Karpf, Carp etc. He studied in Colmar before enrolling in the Paris Académie school c.1790; here he was a pupil of David. In 1795 he returned to Colmar as drawings teacher at the École centrale. He was back in Paris in 1805 and became known as a history and portrait painter, miniaturist (he was particularly known for his miniatures en grisaille), draughtsman and lithographer.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008

Pastels

AUTOPORTRAIT, pstl, 31x23 (Galerie de Bayser, Salon de dessin, 2011). Lit.: Lettre de la miniature, no. 6, p. 11 repr. ♀

