

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

LEMORT, Jean-Baptiste

fl. 1770–95

The miniaturist Jean-Baptiste Lemort, active from 1787, when he exhibited a portrait of Condorcet engraved by Augustin de Saint-Aubin, may well be the pupil of Devosge at the école de dessin in Dijon, proxime accessit in the paintings prize for 1770 and who exhibited three pastels the following year.

Bibliography

Almanach de la province de Bourgogne et particulièrement de la ville de Dijon, Dijon, 1772; Bénézit; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008; Salmon 1997a; Sanchez 2004

Pastels

L'instant où Cléopâtre se fait piquer le sein, pstl,
Dijon 1771

Saint François, pstl, Dijon 1771

Une académie, pstl, Dijon 1771