LA CROIX, Pierre-Frédéric de

France 1709 – The Hague 1782

The deaf and dumb pastel^{ist} Pieter Frederik, or Pierre-Frédéric, de La Croix was born in France but worked in Amsterdam and The Hague. From 1753 he was a member of Pictura in The Hague. He seems to have been self-taught. In addition to the many pastels (the earliest dated of which is from 1753), some early oil paintings also exist (e.g. the 1746 portrait in Zwolle recently identified as of Scheltina Anna Ida Aysma van Laut). His work was engraved by Greenwood, Houbraken, Vinkeles etc. His daughter Susanna (q.v.) was also an artist. Some of his work may be confused with that of J. de La Croix (q.v.).
