

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

MARRON

fl. Vallière c.1773

Maître de dessin à l'école de Vallière. The group of four anonymous pastels of the Monspey sisters are discussed in the girls' correspondence, where the artist is identified as a "peintre lorrain" Other references suggest that one was painted by Marron in 1773, but this may be a confusion. They appear to belong to an earlier period, and are similar to an anonymous pastel of the marquise de Vibraye (v. Éc. fr.) which may be by Hubert Drouais.

Bibliography

E. Mougín, L'Abbaye de Remiremont; Marquise de Monspey, Lettres royales inédites, 1908, p. 50; Françoise Haudidier, "Portraits de chanoinesses", Renaissance traditionnelle, 48, XII, .x.1981, pp. 258f

Pastels

Quatre des cinq filles du comte Joseph-Henry de Monspey: pstl, 46x36, 1775 (Remiremont, Hôtel de ville). Exh.: Remiremont 1996, no. 126 [photos], p. 192 n.r.

J.517.101 ~Marie-Louise de MONSPEY, dite Eglé de Vallière (1731–), chanoinesse de Remiremont 1776–, 1773 ϕ

J.517.103 ~Marie-Louise-Catherine, Madame de MONSPEY, dite Bergère Annette ou Annette de Charentey (1734–1807), doyenne de Remiremont

J.517.104 ~Marie-Reine-Aimée de MONSPEY, dite Laure de Vury (1736–), chanoinesse de Remiremont 1766–

J.517.105 ~Reine-Pauline-Elise de MONSPEY, dite Pauline d'Arma, chanoinesse de Remiremont 1772–