PARRY, William

London 1743–1791

A history painter, portraitist, miniaturist and engraver. He was awarded prizes for chalk drawings at Shipley's school in 1760 and 1761, and became a pupil of Sir Joshua Reynolds and a member of the Society of Artists in 1766. A series of coloured chalk drawings of members of The Cycle of the White Rose (a Jacobite club led by Sir Watkin Williams-Wynn), was probably executed in north Wales in 1770. With the support of Sir Watkin, he travelled to Italy in 1770, returning four years later to become a regular exhibitor at the Royal Academy. He occasionally produced drawings which are described as in coloured chalk but may be pastels.
