

QUEULVÉE, Jean-Baptiste

Évreux 1764–1812

Queulvée, or Queullevé, was a deaf-mute. He was enrolled as an élève in the école de l'Académie royale on 15.1.1787 aged 19, as a pupil of David, living rue du Marche Palu. A 1791 self-portrait in oils (Paris, Christie's, 23.vi.2009, Lot 115 repr., as éc. fr.) was of notably higher quality than the surviving pastels.

Pastels

J.6066.101 Charlotte LASLIER, pstl, 22.5x18.7, 1803 (Évreux, musée, inv. 7981. Legs Lamy 1947) φ

J.6066.103 Pierre QUEULVÉE (1723–1790), marchand bonnetier, père de l'artiste, pstl, 66x53.7, 1791 (Évreux, musée, inv. 7980. Legs Lamy 1947) φ

