

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

SCHMOLL, Georg Friedrich

Ludwigsburg c.1745 – Urdorf 1785

Draughtsman, miniaturist and engraver. He accompanied his brother-in-law Lavater on his travels, and provided numerous illustrations for his Physiognomie. He is also known for several drawings of Goethe and his family. The “pastels” listed, which have not been seen, appear to include monochrome works, drawings in coloured chalk and possibly watercolour.

Bibliography

Bénézit

Pastels

Johann Kaspar GOETHE (1710–1782), Vater des Dichters, min., 1774 φ

Frau Johann Kaspar GOETHE, née Katharina Elisabeth Textor (1731–1808), head, profile to left, pstl, 1787 (n/k) φ

Johann Wilhelm von GOETHE (1749–1832), head, profile to right, pstl, 29x26, 1774. φ

Johann Heinrich MERCK (1741–1791), Literaturkritiker, Jugendfreund Goethes, pstl, 26x21. Bildarchiv preußischer Kulturbesitz φ