

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

STANLEY

fl. London 1764–69

A Standley exhibited crayon portraits at the Free Society 1764 (from Oxenden Street, Haymarket); probably the same as the Stanley or Stanly who exhibited crayon portraits at the Society of Artists 1768–69 (from Mr Nesbit's, Coventry Street, Haymarket), and the subject of the Society's memoranda "Regarding Mr Stanley's crayons", 25.I.1766 and 20.VI.1766.

Bibliography

Lowengard 2008, citing [R]SA Minutes of the Committee on Polite Arts, [R]SA Minutes of various premium committees 1765–66 [R]SA PR.GE/112/12/7; Waterhouse 1981

Pastels

Gentleman, crayons, Society of Artists 1769, no. 163

Young gentleman, crayons, Free Society 1764, no. 168

Lady, crayons, kit cat [91.5x71], Free Society 1764, no. 167

Lady, crayons, Society of Artists 1768, no. 161

Lady, crayons, Society of Artists 1769, no. 162