TARÉ

f. Paris 1791–99

Possibly the pupil who won a silver medal at the Académie royale in 1765. A handful of exhibits (in various genres and media, one picture being a male portrait in pastel) at the Salons of 1791, 1793 and 1799, from 18, rue des Poulies or École centrale du Panthéon, is all that we know of this artist.
