

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

TRENCH, Henry

Ireland 1684 – London brd 14.XI.1726

The history painter, engraver and illustrator spent sixteen years in Italy, first recorded in Rome in 1704 working for Sir John Perceval and the Earl of Shaftesbury. He died soon after his return to London in 1725, and “Henry Trench of Saint Giles’s in the Fields” was buried at St James’s, Paddington.

Bibliography

Alexander 2021; Ingamells 1997

Pastels

J.7255.101 AUTORITRATTO, pstl/ppr, 45.5x28.5, inscr. “Henricus Trench pictor/natus in Irlandia Anno Domini/MDCLXXXIV/in praesentia vivit” (Stockholm, Nationalmuseum, inv. NMH 3077/1863. Nicola Pio. Crozat. Tessin) φ

