

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

WELTÉ, Gottlieb

Mainz c.1745 – Revel c.1790

Painter and etcher. He studied initially under his father before moving to Frankfurt, where he painted figures in Schmitz's landscapes. He taught the Estonian painter Helene Zoega von Manteuffel, whose portrait he made. He appears to have supplemented his meagre earnings from art with his musical skills.

Bibliography

AKL; Bénézit

Pastels

Helene ZOEGE VON MANTEUFFEL (1774–1842),
Malerin, pstl. Lit.: AKL, s.v. Zoega