

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

WALTON, Isaac, Jr

London 7.IX.1651–1719

The son of the celebrated author Izaak Walton, Isaac [sic] became domestic chaplain to Seth Ward, bishop of Salisbury; he is credited with an original (and therefore not the Ashfield) crayon portrait of his father said to have been made from recollection after his death. The artist died in London, unmarried.

Bibliography

Oxford DNB, s.v. Walton, father

Pastels

J.781.101 Izaak WALTON (1595–1683), biographer and author, crayons (desc.; Dr Hawes). Lit.; William Lisle Bowles, The life of Thomas Ken, DD, London, 1830, I, p. 7 n.r.