

Neil Jeffares, Dictionary of pastellists before 1800

Online edition

CAMPHUIJZEN, Gerrit

fl. Groningen c.1745–72

Also Camphuijsen, Kamphuysen, Kamphuyzen, Kampenhuizen etc. Painter, miniaturist, draughtsman and pastellist, he produced portraits, landscapes and genre pictures. In 1761 he executed a number of miniatures for the van Alderwerelt family. He became a member of the Confrerie Pictura (where he was noted for portrait, landscapes and miniatures) in The Hague in 1762 before relocating to Groningen for some ten years. He is possibly related to the miniaturist Jean or Jan Kamphuisen (1760–1840) from Amsterdam, cited in the Journal de Guienne as visiting Bordeaux in 1786. A number of portraits in black chalk are reminiscent of Liotard.

Bibliography

Bénézit; Bordeaux 1995, p. 32; Lemoine-Bouchard 2008; rKD; Schidlof 1964–65; Terwesten 1776

Pastels

J.1938.101 Dame avec son chien, pstl/ppr, 48.5x38.5, sd / "G. Kampenhuisen, 1770" (Leiden, Stedelijk Museum de Lakenhal, S234)

φ

